

New Garden
Friends Meeting
Established 1754

270 Years of Continuous Quaker Ministry and Presence in the New Garden/Greensboro Community

801 New Garden Road
Greensboro, N.C. 27410

336-292-5487
www.ngfm.org

You are invited to also go online to sign the virtual guestbook and view an ongoing presentation about Pat's life.

www.pat.tweedy.in

Celebration of Life

Patricia Lynn Foust Tweedy

A Celebration of the Life of
Patricia Lynn Foust Tweedy

Born May 2, 1947 in Lexington, NC
Passed April 17, 2024 in Greensboro, NC

Prelude	Gus Cothern
Welcome & Thank you	Deborah Suess
Introduction to Opening Music	Edward Tweedy
Solo “Here I Am Lord”	Gus Cothern
Story of Pat’s Life	Edward Tweedy
Miss Me & Let Me Go Author Unknown	Edward Tweedy

Remembrances by close family

Open Worship in the Manner of Friends

If during this time of silence, you feel moved to share a brief remembrance, thought, prayer or song - please do so. In order to be heard by all, it is helpful if you come to the microphone to speak.

Please allow a few moments of silence between messages.

Hymn #304 “A Song of Peace”

Benediction Deborah Suess

Postlude Gus Cothern

Please join the family in the Fellowship Hall for a time of visitation and light refreshments. You will have an opportunity to see a video of Barbara Lister-Sink playing “Clair de Lune” by Debussy.

Surviving Family of Pat Foust Tweedy

Husband, R. Edward Tweedy, Jr.

Met in August, 1965 at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, NC

Married August 3, 1968 in Lexington, NC

Son, Phillip Harrell Tweedy

Born July 9, 1973 in Greensboro, NC

Son, Jonathan Edward Tweedy

Born August 11, 1978 in Greensboro, NC

Son, Éamonn Patrick Tweedy

Born March 8, 1984 in Limerick, Ireland

Sister, Cheryl Foust Head

Sister, Pamela Foust Heye

Brother-in-law, Harrell Tweedy and his wife Marian Tweedy

Education of Pat Foust Tweedy

Central Davidson High School, Lexington, NC

Wake Forest University: BA; Cum Laude, Winston-Salem, NC

UNC-Greensboro, M. ED., 6th Year Certificate

East Carolina University, further graduate studies